Rôle du Conseil de l'Europe dans le domaine économique

Proposition de résolution

déposée par Sir John FOSTER et d'autres membres de l'Assemblée

The Consultative Assembly recommends that, in order to achieve the unity of Europe in the sphere of social security a permanent Committee of the Council of Europe be established whose task it shall be to concert measures:

- a. for the establishment of a minimum standard of social benefits commensurate with the economic resources of each country;
- b. for the interchangeability of the benefits of the social security systems of the various countries.

This Committee shall co-operate with the existing appropriate international agencies including especially the I. L. O.
